TON Ecosystem Builders Summit

The TON logo is a large, stylized blue symbol resembling a downward-pointing triangle with a vertical bar through its center, positioned behind the main text.

The largest global communication platform in the TON ecosystem

The TON Ecosystem Builders Conference is a global industry event and serves as a platform for showcasing TON technology and innovation. It not only enhances global users' understanding of the TON ecosystem but also acts as a crucial bridge for communication and collaboration within and beyond the industry. The conference will be held in multiple cities worldwide, aiming to connect project teams, investors, and partners to jointly promote the construction and governance of the TON ecosystem community, advancing the development of the Web3 industry and fostering the healthy growth of the TON ecosystem.
